INTRODUCTION

Our Privacy Statement

- a) describes the types of Personal Data Drime Ltd. (hereinafter Drime or we) collects, how we store and process clients' personal data, how we use it, and with whom we share it and
- b) (ii) provides information about rights in accordance with local law and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679. We also describe the measures we take to protect the information and how you can contact us about privacy practices.

By using Drime's services, you acknowledge you have read and accepted Our Privacy Statement.

We may also sometimes collectively refer to handling, collecting, protecting, and storing your personal data or any such action as "processing" such personal data.

WHAT DATA DO WE COLLECT

For the purpose of this statement, personal data shall mean any information relating to you, which includes the information that identifies you as an individual or relates to an identifiable person:

- a) Personal data you submit - We collect Personal Data when you submit it to us, such as when you register for or subscribe to certain products or services, create a profile, or contact customer service. We collect and process different types of personal data from you in person, via your representative, or in another context of our business relationship. When you fill out our website's newsletter form, you indicate your consent to receive our newsletter. You can at any time unsubscribe from receiving this newsletter by following the instructions in any newsletter. When you browse our website, we process your IP address, Google Analytics ID, internet browser and device type, location data, and your use of our website, including which pages you visited, how you got to our website, the time and length of your visit and your language preferences. We use this data for our legitimate interests of making sure our website works properly. We also collect your data when you complete the contact form to indicate interest in our products and services. We collect the data you submit, including your contact information, address and order details, corporate information, tax information, and payment details. The Personal Data you submit may also include your name, postal address (including billing and shipping addresses), credit or debit card number, telephone number, mobile number, email address, gender, username, or profile picture.

- b) When we agree to provide services to you or the legal entity you represent or beneficially owner - then additional personal data will be collected and processed, which may include other payment service/banking relationship details, tax ID, credit reference agency data [e.g., Experian], residence, own and/or third-party security [e.g. a bank guarantee], employment position [e.g., as per corporate certificates of directors/shareholders], cash flows and balance sheets and business management information. So that we can proceed with a business relationship with you, you must provide your personal data to us, which is necessary for the commencement and execution of a business relationship and the performance of our contractual obligations. We are furthermore obligated to collect such personal data given the provisions of the money laundering law, which require that we verify your identity before we enter a contract or a business relationship with you or the legal entity for which you are the authorized representative/agent or beneficial owner. You must, therefore, provide us at least with your identity card/passport, your full name, place of birth (city and country), and your residential address so that we may comply with our statutory obligation as mentioned above.
- c) Personal data we receive from third parties - To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may receive Personal Data about you from third parties, such as social media services, commercially available sources, and business partners. The Personal Data we receive from third parties may include your name, contact information, information about your transactions, activities, purchase history, or relationships with various product and service providers, and your use of certain applications. The information we obtain depends on records regarding your person in various lists, sanction lists, and other applicable services and databases. We use such information and content in accordance with this Our Privacy Statement.
- d) Other information - is any information not intended to reveal your specific identity to us, such as browser information, usage data, information collected through cookies and other technologies, demographic information, geolocation data obtained with your consent where required by applicable law, and aggregated information. This may include your password, birthday, education or graduation year, occupation, financial information (such as your income, investments, portfolio transactions and value, and other information), live event accommodations, and interests and information about your activities in general. Our services use cookies and other tracking technologies to deliver certain features effectively.

For more information about how we use cookies and tracking technologies, please refer to our Cookie Notice.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION

We may use the Personal Data we collect from and about you for the purposes below. We may use and disclose Other Information for any purpose except if it is considered Personal Data under applicable law. If we combine Other Information with your Personal Data, we treat the combined information as Personal Data.

We may periodically send promotional materials, with your permission where required, surveys, market research, contest or promotional awards, or notifications related to our products and services. To help make these materials more relevant to you, we may use and combine any of the Personal Data and Other Information we collect to assist us in sending you these materials. We may also use your information (including a telephone or mobile number you may have provided for this purpose) to contact you and respond to your comments, inquiries, or requests.

HOW WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION

We may make your Personal Data available to third-party service providers, such as contractors, agents, or sponsors, who help us manage or provide our products and services by, for example: developing or supporting products and features, sending email messages on our behalf; processing payments; fulfilling orders; delivering subscriptions; auditing; processing data or statistics; and serving, customizing or delivering marketing. These third-party service providers must protect Personal Data entrusted to them and not use it for any other purpose than the specific service they provide on our behalf.

We do not share such Personal Data with unaffiliated third-party companies for marketing purposes. There may be instances when Drime may disclose your Personal Data, including situations where we have a good faith belief that such disclosure is necessary to: protect, enforce, or defend the legal rights, privacy, safety, or property of Drime, our employees, agents, and contractors (including enforcement of our agreements and our terms of use); protect the safety, privacy, and security of users of our products and services or members of the public; protect against fraud and other unlawful activity or for risk management purposes; comply with and enforce the law or legal process, including laws outside your country of residence, contractual obligations, and our policies; or respond to requests from public and government authorities, including public and government authorities outside your country of residence, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

HOW WE PROTECT AND RETAIN PERSONAL DATA

Drime uses administrative, technical, personnel, and physical measures to safeguard Personal Data in its possession against accidental, unlawful, or unauthorized loss, use, access, disclosure, or modification. We make reasonable efforts to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk of the processing, considering the costs of implementation and the nature of the processing of Personal Data. However, only some people can guarantee the complete safety of your information. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure (for example, if you feel the security of any account you might have with us has been compromised), please immediately notify us of the problem by contacting Customer Service in accordance with the instructions below.

We will retain your Personal Data for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Notice unless a longer retention period is required or allowed by law.

YOUR RIGHTS AND CHOICES

We give you many choices regarding our use and disclosure of your Personal Data for marketing purposes.

You may opt out of receiving electronic communications from us (including surveys, notifications, or promotions from us on behalf of third parties), or our sharing of your Personal Data with Drime Affiliates, by changing your account settings through the appropriate link on the website account services page or following the unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email. You can opt out of direct marketing from Drime Affiliates by using the unsubscribe links or following the steps in their applicable policies.

Please note that there are certain service notifications that you may not opt out of, such as renewal notices and notifications of changes to Drime products and services or policies.

You can access, review, correct, update, delete or modify your registration or subscription profile information and your marketing preferences by contacting Customer Service, as indicated below. Suppose you are in the European Economic Area or Switzerland (collectively, "EEA"). In that case, you can also object to or restrict the processing of your Personal Data or exercise your right to data portability.

Where you have provided your consent for our use of your Personal Data, you have the right to withdraw your consent, and we will apply your preferences from now on.

For your protection, we may only implement requests concerning the Personal Data associated with the email address you use to send us your request, and we may need to verify your identity before implementing your request. We will comply with your request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Please note that we may need to retain certain information for recordkeeping purposes and/or to complete any transactions you began before requesting such change or deletion.

We can update this Privacy Notice without prior notice to reflect changes in our practices. Please look at the Effective Date at the top of this Privacy Notice to see when this Privacy Notice was last revised. Any changes to this Privacy Notice will become effective when we post the revised Privacy Notice on the Drime website. We will notify you by posting a prominent notice on the Drime website indicating that we have updated this Privacy Notice. Your use of the Drime website or your provision of Personal Data to us following these changes means you acknowledge you have read and accepted the revised Privacy Notice.

Your Personal Data may be stored, transferred to, and processed in any country where we have facilities or engage service providers. These countries may be outside your country of residence, including the EU member states, and may have different data protection laws than in your country.
